

INVITATION

INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP

regarding the police tactical training of police officers

IPA Romanian Section, Region 1 Mures, in partnership with I.P.J. Mures, invites you to the INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP regarding the police tactical training of police officers, which will take place between 27-30.08.2024, in the municipality of Targu Mures.

The activity is addressed to young police officers who have been employed in the last 3 years.

The conference aims to provide participants, through exchanges of experience with police officers from abroad.

Workshop topics:

- CQB, tactical training and arresting tactics in crowded spaces;
and, so that any police officer acquires the necessary skills to be able to intervene in any event.
- defensive/offensive driving for police units.
- a complex exercise regarding a hostage situation – planning and executing the activity.

Secondary objectives:

- streamlining the training activity and achieving an effective exchange of experience in the implementation of training programs, .
- exchange of experience with police workers from abroad, about preventing and fighting against the street violence;

Since the places are limited, they will be filled in the order of receipt of registration forms and payments made in the amount of 180 euro place in a double room, or 250 euros for a single room

For more information, contact person Mureșan Marius - tel. 0040-744397796. Registration deadline 15.08.2024.

Best regards,

Vice President IPA Romania
MUREȘAN MARIUS