

I am delighted to invite you and your representatives to this year's Senior Women in Policing (SWiP) Conference, 'Leadership of the Future.' The Thames Valley Women's Network (TVWN) on behalf of Thames Valley Police and in support of the Women Chief Officer Network (WCON) are hosting this year's event.

This high quality, engaging three day conference will feature insightful and challenging presentations, work-shops to encourage professional and personal development, discussions and networking opportunities for our current and future senior female leaders and their colleagues.

Event Details:

- Date: Weds 11th – Fri 13th December 2024
- Venue: Examination Schools, University of Oxford
- Refreshments: Tea, coffee, snacks and lunch on all three days will be provided with a gala dinner on Thurs 12th December.
- Accommodation Options for local accommodation are detailed on our website

Agenda Highlights:

1. Louise Minchin: Broadcaster & journalist, will guide us through proceedings and chair the panel session on Thursday
2. Mary Ann Seighart, journalist and author of the bestselling book 'The Authority Gap' which reveals the unseen bias at work in everyday life.
3. Jeremy Stockdale, CEO of Ylead, a leadership consultancy founded to create a more data-driven and human led approach to developing leaders
4. Sarah-Jane Bray, Thames Valley Police: responsible for the internal VAWG strategy, encouraging a healthy team culture & raising awareness of sexual misconduct
5. Professor Irene Tracey, Vice Chancellor, Oxford University
