COMPETITION RULES

SCC Arts and Culture Project Team is organising the:

5th International Children's Drawing Competition.

All children or grandchildren of our members, aged 6-12 years (born 1-1-2013 to 31-12-2019) are eligible to participate, provided that either a parent, grandparent, or guardian consent to both the child's participation in the competition, as well as the permission to exhibit the submitted projects and grant rights to the International Executive Board (IEB) for use of the paintings in the construction of calendars, etc.

(Children and grandchildren of IEB members and SCC's Arts and Culture Project members are excluded from the competition)

Each child participant must paint on A4 size paper. The following can be used: pencil, watercolours, tempera, oil pastel, dry pastel and inks.

Projects must be accompanied by a completed entry form including the full name of the contestant (name, surname), age, parent's email and contact phone number.

Upon submission of the project, the parents shall automatically accept all the above conditions set by the Commission.

The deadline of the competition is the 16th of August 2025. Any late submissions will be excluded from the competition.

Each contestant will be entitled to only two (2) entries and the same child cannot be a winner of more than one topic.

The topics of the competition are:

1. Police cars
2. Animals
3. Environment

The competition will feature 3 winners from each category and one overall winner.

The prizes will be:

- For the overall winner: a gift worth 100 euros
- For the first winner of each category: a gift worth 50 euros
- For the second and third winners of each category: a gift worth 50 euros

The above sums of money, will be deposited by the Treasurer, in the respective National Section's bank accounts.

All children will receive (by e-mail) a Certificate of Participation.

Drawings will be exhibited on a board, during the 68th IPA World Congress in Krakow, Poland.

A committee of educators and professional painters will choose the best paintings.

The results of the competition will be announced on the last working day of the congress.

All drawings should be scanned and sent to the following e-mail address till 16th August 2025:

artsandcultureprojectteam@gmail.com

Each participant is solely responsible for the complete and correct delivery of their information.

Incomplete or incorrect completion of the participant's details entitles the SCC to exclude him/ her from the Contest.

Any of the participants and / or the winner, at any stage, may be excluded if they do not meet the conditions for entry.

The contestants provide their consent and authorisation to IEB or SCC to publish the contest and / or its results through radio, television, as well as through print and electronic media and / or the internet. The IEB reserves the right to use and publish for any purpose, the list of winners, photos, films and videos and may use any news item related to this competition for promotion purposes. Participation in the programme automatically provide consensus and assignment of the necessary rights (copyright, exploitation) for this purpose without any other claim against IEB and SCC.

Participation in the contest implies the unconditional acceptance of the terms of the competition and entails the consequent waiver of any claim against IPA.

Entries with content that infringes on public outrage and good morals or are subject to ambiguity or other technical defects will not be accepted.

Entries that contain content that is offensive to the honour and dignity of any Public or Administrative or Ecclesiastical Authority or any third party, content that is abusive, incendiary, racist, or object to the provisions hereof, or in any other way deemed inappropriate by the IEB or SCC shall not make them liable for any criminal or civil liability to any winner or third party, for any accident that may occur and / or damage and / or for any physical or other damage that may be caused to them directly or indirectly in connection with the Competition.
