LAFP NRW – State Office for Training, Further Education and Personnel Affairs of the Police of North Rhine-Westphalia
Im Sundern 1, 59379 Selm, Germany

Target Group

Active police officers with up to 10 years of service, from patrol, investigative units, riot police, or early leadership roles.

Seminar Content

Based on the official seminar outline, participants can expect:

- High-level presentations
- Digital and scenario-based training sessions
- Workshops and discussion formats
- International networking and cultural exchange

Participation Fee

The planned participation fee will be no more than 250 euros per participant, covering:

- Accommodation
- All seminar activities
- Meals (standard/full board)
- Organized transfer from Dortmund Airport (DTM) or Düsseldorf Airport
(DUS) to the venue

Final costs and additional details will be announced as planning progresses.

Registration Procedure for IPA Sections

Step 1 – Expression of Interest (until 31 January 2026)

IPA Sections wishing to secure a place may register their interest by emailing:

✉ service@ipa-deutschland.de

At this stage, no participant details are required.

Step 2 – Submission of Participant Data (31 January – 15 February 2026)

After the first deadline, IPA Germany will request participant information from all sections that have expressed interest.

Allocation of Places

- Each IPA Section may register one participant.
- If not all seats are filled, additional participants from interested sections may be accepted.
- Final allocation depends on available capacity.

Media Consent Statement

By submitting the required registration documents, all participants give their consent that photo, video, and audio recordings may be taken during the event for official IPA purposes, including but not limited to documentation, reporting, internal communication, and public relations activities of IPA Germany and the international IPA community.

Additional Notes

- International participants must register exclusively through their IPA Section. No individual registrations will be accepted.
- IPA Germany members will receive a separate national call for applications.
- Sections and participants are encouraged to follow IPA Germany's communication channels for ongoing updates.
