Hey there! Just a quick note: In line with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 from the European Parliament and Council dated April 27, 2016, which focuses on protecting individuals when it comes to personal data processing and its free movement (GDPR), the INTERNATIONAL POLICE ASSOCIATION (I.P.A.) Spanish Section, with tax ID G58663733, located at Carrer de la Guardia Urbana, 3-5, Barcelona, and reachable at oficina@ipaespana.org, wants to let you know that the information you've shared will be used for purposes related to your membership (purpose 1). We might also use your data to send you updates about our services, activities, events related to the association, and other info that could interest you (purpose 2). We'll keep your personal data for as long as necessary to meet our legal and contractual obligations as per current laws. The reason we process your data is based on your membership in the organization (purpose 1) and your explicit consent (purpose 2). Various local groups and territorial communities within the organization may access, update, and process your personal data based on their location or operational needs. If you'd like, you can reach out to our Data Protection Officer (DPO) to withdraw your consent, or to exercise your rights regarding access, correction, deletion, objection, restriction of processing, and/or data portability by contacting the INTERNATIONAL POLICE ASSOCIATION (I.P.A.) at the address above or via email at privacidad@ipaespana.org. If you think your rights have been infringed, you can also file a complaint with the relevant supervisory authority, which in this case is the Spanish Data Protection Agency. For any questions about this, feel free to reach out to secretario@ipaextremadura.org. Also, in line with the right to one's own image, as stated in Article 18.1 of the Spanish Constitution and governed by Organic Law 1/1982 from May 5, regarding the right to honor, personal and family privacy, and one's own image, we want to inform you that the organization processes and shares these images across various media and applications for the purposes mentioned earlier.
